SUBJECT: State Representation

With Football Federation Victoria (FFV) calling for players to nominate for 2008 Representative State Squad trials, FFV would like to indicate to all players the eligibility of player selection.

Football Federation Victoria may select a player for a representative squad based on the following –

1. Residency

- 1.1 A player's physical residential address must be within the state of Victoria.
- 1.2 If a player whose plays at a club distinct from their physical residential address, it is the state in which that player resides that player is eligible to represent.
- 1.3 Should this state determine not to select that player then that player has the opportunity to represent the other state of interest, should it arise.

2. Age

- 2.1 A player must meet the age criteria set by FFV to be eligible to trial for their respective representative squad.
