

TO: Men's Victorian Premier League Clubs

FROM: Registrations Department

DATE: Friday, February 29, 2008

SUBJECT: Payment of Transfer Fees and Training Compensation

Dear Club Official,

With the 2008 FOXTEL Cup season now underway all Clubs are reminded that the 4-week mid-season window for the Victorian Premier League (VPL) will open on Wednesday, 7th May 2008 and close on Wednesday, 4th June 2008 at 5.00pm

In accordance with Article 10 of the National Registration Regulations (NRR) [Page 27], payment (if applicable to your respective club) of any Transfer Fees through Football Federation Victoria and Training Compensation is due within 30 days of the date a player is registered.

Payment of Transfer Fees

In accordance with Article 10.5 and 10.6 of the NRR;

At the point of lodgement of registration documents, if an agreed transfer fee (as indicated on Prescribed Form NRR 06 – Application for Transfer or Loan of Professional Player) is to be paid through Football Federation Victoria, the fee is due within 30 days of the date a player is registered (lodging of player registration documents with FFV).

If the agreed fee has not been paid in full by 5pm on the 30th day since the player was registered, the player in question will be de-registered and will not be able to participate in any further matches until full payment has been finalised.

Payment of Training Compensation

In accordance with Article 10.4 of the NRR;

When Training Compensation is due for a player upon their registration, in accordance with Article 10.2 and 10.3 of the NRR, the set fee of $3,000.00 is due within 30 days of the date a player is registered (lodging of player registration documents with FFV).

If the set fee of $3,000.00 has not been paid in full by 5pm on the 30th day since the player was registered, the player in question will be de-registered and will not be able to participate in any further matches until full payment has been finalised.

If you have any further queries regarding this information you may contact the Registrations Department on 9474 1845 or e-mail registrations@footballfedvic.com.au

Kind Regards,

Mark Pititto
FFV Registrations Coordinator